RE: PLANETFEEDBACK INCIDENT NUMBER 326764

Dear Mr. Andrew,

I am writing to express my desire that Vice President Al Gore give up the fight for the presidency if he is behind after the recount in Florida. He should not hold this nation hostage by supporting court battles over whether there should be another election in some Florida counties.

It's time for Gore to do the right thing. This nation needs to move on. Richard Nixon could have contested John F. Kennedy's election in 1960, but decided against it for the good of the country. Al Gore should do the same. We don't need the uncertainty of long court battles.

Our electoral system has been a way of life for more than 200 years. If Al Gore does the right thing and abides by that system and concedes after the recount, I believe he will become even more popular.

Thanks for listening to my point of view.

Sincerely,

Trinell Ros
